In Loving Memory of C.D. "Red" Malley

Born Cletus Donald Malley in Rochester MN to John Lawrence Malley and Marie Julia Butler, he grew up in Wykoff, MN where he married Dolores and became an Eastern Airlines flight attendant on "The Great Silver Fleet." In 1953 the family moved to California where Red had a long career in the moving business.

His hobby was restoring and selling many El Caminos, earning him the title "Mr. El Camino." Red also enjoyed horse racing with annual trips to the Del Mar Race Track.

He is preceded in death by his son, Steven Lee O'Malley, wife Dolores V. Schneider with whom he had 3 children and his second wife Wilma "Billie" Sherey, ("Nana" to Red's grandchildren.)

He is survived by his daughter Georgiana Berg, son Donald J. "Buddy" O'Malley, 5 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandson.

He was loved dearly and will be missed greatly.

Dr John Malley posted:

Red was my uncle, the immediate younger brother of my father, John. I always enjoyed Uncle Red, enjoyed both our visits and conversations. He had a warm sensitive way about him. He deeply valued his family and his Catholic Faith. I was always aware of a calmness he lived by, and being from the Midwest, I attributed that to his living in California. Discussion of snow and cold was not for him. I wish him peace, and am certain he is heaven at Peace . Red was "OK"! John E . Malley, DPM, MD...nephew and friend.
