Steven Ray Jasinski

AUG 27, 1953 - APR 2, 2016

Steven Ray Jasinski, passed away on April 2nd, 2016 at his home in Escondido, Ca. He was born in Chicago, Illinois on August 27, 1953. From a young age, Steve was very passionate about music. He attended Los Angeles Recording School in Hollywood, Ca. He was a brilliant musician and a gifted songwriter. He also taught music with a special style of kindness and patience. He had a lifelong love for music. In his younger days, he enjoyed playing the sport of football and basketball. He later became a huge sports fan, rarely missing a single game of Football, Basketball or Hockey. Steve had a tremendous love of family, always looking forward to everyone spending time together. He was the most loving son, brother and uncle. He was very smart and very witty, with a generous spirit. He was the very definition of unconditional love. He simply was the kindest, most gentle man.

Steve was survived by his parents, Irving & Leona Jasinski of Escondido, Ca. His brothers, Randy Jasinski of Escondido, Ca., Kevin Jasinski of Trabuco Canyon, sister Jane Schwarz, and brother in law Todd Schwarz of Escondido, Ca., nephew Jason Conard and his wife Michele of Bonsall, Ca., niece Katherine Sierra and her husband Mike of Murrieta, Ca., nephew Christopher Jasinski of Joshua Tree, Ca., and niece Stein Jasinski of San Diego, Ca.

Very sorry to hear of Steve's passing. We played together for a brief period in the early 80s. His knowledge of music and songs and his ability to hear a song and immediately identify the chord rep was something that was extraordinary. RIP.
