Shirley Salisbury

AUG 20, 1932 - JAN 23, 2018

Shirley Salisbury passed away peacefully on January 23, 2018 in the comfort of her home and surrounded by loved ones.

Funeral Services will be held at Oak Hill Memorial Park Cemetery Thursday, February 8, 2018 at 3:00 PM.

Shirley was born August 20, 1932 in Cameron Missouri, the second of four children. Her parents, James & Mary Evelyn Grace owned and operated the Cameron Hatchery. Growing up on a farm, Shirley enjoyed playing with her siblings and pet chickens. After graduating from Cameron High School she did secretarial work for an insurance agent in Cameron.

She married Marion Lee Salisbury in 1950, and relocated to San Diego when he began basic training at the Naval Training Center. They had two daughters, Nancy & Laura. Marion & Shirley divorced in 1971.

After a long career in banking, Shirley became a bookkeeper for a local Escondido health foods store. After retiring, she kept busy with family activities and being a full-time caregiver for her soulmate, Louis LePine.

Shirley loved baking, gardening, traveling, trying out new recipes on unsuspecting friends and family, and especially loved her Bunco group. Cruising to Alaska and the Caribbean were new adventures she enjoyed immensely. Shirley had a heart of gold. She donated annually to the San Diego Wild Animal Park and was a proud and active member of DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution). She will always be remembered for her feistiness and generous heart.

She is survived by her brother James Grace, loving daughters, Nancy and Laura, granddaughter Kelly (Peter) Swales and great grandson Odon Swales.

Shirley was a gracious and witty lady who was always a joy to be around. She obviously loved to cook and I will always remember her delicious casseroles and desserts that she shared with her Bunco buddies. Rest in peace Shirley. Carmen Guarino
