I met Dr. Willis in 1972 when my fiance John's cat was ill. Dr. owned the rental house next to the clinic where John and his buddy Robert lived when they first got out of the Navy. Dr. Willis was the best vet I have ever known. He was always kind and gentle to my German Shepherds. I will always remember his kindness when I lost my Arwen. In fact, a client of his was a German Shepherd breeder. When she needed homes for two of her dogs doctor recommended me. Throughout the ensuing years I would stop by and see Dr Willis just to chat. His wonderful smile will always be remembered. God bless you doctor, I'm sure you're in heaven watching out for all of our fur babies. Till we meet again. Moonyeen McCormick ❤️🌸
