Obituary

Robert (Bob, Bobby) Levenson

JUL 28, 1947 - JUN 4, 2020

He graduated Palomar Community College in 1981 majoring in Journalism. He continued working with the civil service in Camp Pendleton, Miramar Naval Air Station, San Diego, CA and then on working in landscaping/ maintenance services.

His special bond with fellow USMC brothers, his brotherhood & patriotism stayed with him through his daily life, Semper Fi!

Bob loved to socialize, was an avid swimmer, loved to travel, enjoyed train & car rides across country, photography, wanderlust and carried that spirit of an eternal child with him always.

Bob was the bingo champion and loved venturing to the casino. He had that "luck of the Irish," like he would always say.

He is survived by his loving wife Olga Levenson of 44 years and only child daughter Carmen M. Levenson of Escondido, brother Harold Sutter III, sister Helen Poland- Sutter both of Smithtown, New York, brother Stephen Levenson of Virginia, Aunt Joan Erwin of northern California, 5 nephews, and 1 niece.

A viewing will be held at Alhiser-Comer Mortuary on Thursday, July 2, 2020 from 4:00-8:00pm.

Catholic Mass will be held at St. Mary's Catholic Church on Friday, July 3, 2020 at 10:00am.

He will be joining his fellow brother in arms in full military honors interment at Miramar National Cemetery on July 17, 2020 a private event.
