Les, So much more than just our neighbor. He was sometimes our big brother, our Guardian Angel. Our everything advisor. Always available to help out. Quick to make a joke out of any statement. Wise, sharp as a tack and smart. Loved his gardening skills and got great pleasure out of sharing what he'd grown. What my wife and I will miss the most are his (almost every day) visits where we'd chat at the gate about current events, politics, the weather and health. He is so loved and really so much MORE, I don't know why we call him Les...Scot & Priscilla

Dearest Pat and family, Sending you healing and comforting thoughts at this difficult time. We had the privilege of caring for Les as he fought his disease so valiantly and bravely over the years. He always had a smile for us, and his quiet strength would fill the room. Pat, he could not have had a more loving wife and advocate. You fought fiercely for him every step of the way. Even on those difficult days you always found time to bake our staff the most delicious cookies. His spirit will live on through you, his children, and grandchildren. He will be truly missed, he was the Papa at the Redcross. On the busiest hot summer drives in Temecula, he would at times, treat the staff to yogurt or ice cream. One of the kindest most patient people I've ever had the pleasure of working with. He always looked out for the staff. I am very lucky to have worked with you, Les, may you rest peacefully with the Angels.

God Bless Uncle LesArmed with a witty sense of humor, Uncle Les would tell interesting stories about his many experiences. I still remember when we visited over 25 years ago and we all spent the day at the San Diego Zoo. T. Hotard and T. Lin

No one could ask for a better brother than Les. I love him so much and I can't picture my life without him. Even though there was four years different in our ages and we always lived hundreds of miles apart in different states we always managed to stay close. Thank you Pat for being so good to him. May the Angels and Mom and Dad watch over him. I miss you my dear precious brother. Pat Hotard
