Sarah Nichole Fulop

SEP 13, 1997 - FEB 25, 2025

Sarah Nichole Fulop, age 27, of Escondido CA, entered peacefully into the arms of Jesus on February 25, 2025 at her home in Escondido due to complications of VEDS (Vascular Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome).

Sarah was born on September 13, 1997 in Oceanside, CA, to Denes and Joy (Kovacs) Fulop.

She graduated from Escondido Charter High School on May 30, 2015 and received her bachelor's degree in Biochemistry from the University of California San Diego in December of 2019. Sarah was currently pursuing her master's degree in teaching and was also working as an assistant teacher at the Health Sciences High and Middle College.

Sarah was baptized in the Escondido Apostolic Christian Church on December 6, 2015. She attended the Escondido AC Church where she was a beloved and valued member of her church family. Many would describe Sarah as passionate and friendly, with a zeal for sharing the gospel and a genuine love for people. She didn't know a stranger. She wrote many beautiful articles for Kairos (a cross-cultural outreach ministry) and the Silver Lining. Sarah had a passion to spread awareness of VEDS and was a very active support to many in the VEDS community. She loved to travel and had a gift for teaching. She adored her nephews and nieces, saying many times that "auntie life is the best life." Sarah was real, authentic, and kind. Many will remember her full of life with a bubbly personality. Despite her many health challenges, her faith in God shone brightly to everyone who knew her. She has left a deep hole in her family and will be greatly missed.

Surviving are her parents, Denes and Joy Fulop, of Escondido; two brothers, Denny (Allison) Fulop, and Matthew Fulop, both of Escondido, CA; three sisters, Linda (Nick) Cikos of Escondido, CA, Abigail (Robin) Karpati of Baja, Hungary, Natalia Fulop of Escondido, CA; and her brother-in-law, Todd (Desiree) Gasser, of Wadsworth OH; 13 nephews and nieces, Isaac Cikos, Dominic Cikos, Milina Cikos, Jelena Cikos, Maddox Fulop, Hudson Fulop, Conrad Fulop, Zane Fulop, Riley Karpati, Aria Karpati, Liam Karpati, Juniper Gasser, and Indie Gasser; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, beloved friends and church family.

Sarah and I have been friends for 20 years. I thought we were going to have 20 more, but there was a different plan in mind. One of our first "playdates" as kids was at her house. After exploring small rooms hidden throughout their home we found this powder that was, no joke, bright baby pink. We were smelling it and putting it on our faces, acting like it was makeup when one of us accidentally dropped it on the carpet. Rather than simply vacuuming up the pink powder, we thought it would be a smart idea to put water on it. It went from being a temporary simple fix to being a permanent fixture in the room. The playdate quickly spiraled into figuring out how to tell her mom and worrying about how she would take it. When we finally mustered the courage to tell Joy, we realized it wasn't as big of deal as we thought. From what I can remember Sarah had that pink spot in her room for awhile after that day. It's so funny to think about it now, and literally makes me laugh out loud, but also makes me sad because I no longer have my oldest childhood friend. I miss you Sarah. Your honesty (which I loved). Your laugh. Thank you for being you and for loving like Jesus loves. You are missed here on earth.

Sarah was such a beautiful soul. She had such a passion for people, I've never met another person who embodied Jesus' love as much as she did. She had a gift for making people feel like they mattered and was always quick to share a smile or a kind word. I always looked up to her in Sunday school. It was inspiring how unwavering she was in her faith, and she was so wise. Heaven rejoiced when Sarah came home, and I know Jesus wrapped her right up in his arms. I pray the Fulop family finds comfort and peace in this moment, knowing Sarah's health is restored, and they will someday be reunited with her. ❤️

I only knew Sarah through Facebook as a VEDS sister, but I could tell she was a light to those around her, to our VEDS community and a faithful sister in Jesus. I am so sorry to hear of her passing, and may her family receive comfort of seeing her again in glory. Sarah, we will continue to fight for a cure in your honor and memory!

Sarah and I weren't particularly close in high school, we were in a few classes together, but the thing I remember most about her was her kindness. Didn't matter who you were, she was kind to everyone, it was amazing to see. A few years after we graduated, she came into where I worked, and we chatted for a few minutes to catch up. I was blown away once again that she was so kind! Even with everything she was dealing with, she managed to look on the bright side and treat everyone with respect and love. Sarah will be missed, condolences to the family.

Sarah was just the sweetest, most caring friend. She always checked up on me, keeping our long lasting friendship alive through our long check-ins and girl chat. She was one of my first friends at Charter, and made me feel so warm and welcomed. I love that I had a beautiful sister in Christ who lived fearlessly and boldly despite the hardships that life presented her. I will miss you dearly, my sweet friend! ❤️
