“ My colorful beautiful Dylan..
You had my heart from the first time I laid eyes on you at Abraxis in orientation.
I forget if it was yellow or lime green but you caught my eye immediately..
I knew you and my Sammie would be the best of friends.
Because of that... you are a son to me..

Your colorful expression, your badass attitude and love for the people and things you believed in, I admired so much. You are deeply missed and the legacy you left behind is full of love and light...

No matter what side of the vale you are on... I am here loving and missing you till I see you again...

All my love...
and all my love to the family..

“ Dylan, I can't even express how much I miss you. I keep waiting for you to walk through the door telling me how your day went. I am blessed to have been your mum for 27 years. I will forever cherish every moment we had. You are one of a kind, nothing compares to you. I know you are surrounded by all of the loved ones you had to say goodbye to over the years. Rest in Paradise my love. XOXO Mum
