“ There are incredible people that you meet in life that have a resounding impact on who you become. Jim was one of those individuals. He set an excellent example of being an honorable person, a great husband, father, and in my case a godfather. I will remember the many conversations we had about our life experiences, our sports teams and your words of wisdom. You will be missed, but your life has impacted many people who will keep you in our discussions and memories.

Be on guard, stand firm in your faith. Be courageous, be strong and do everything with love.
