

Joseph Michael Alestra

May 19, 1960 - December 16, 2017

Joseph Michael Alestra – May 19, 1960 - December 16, 2017. Joseph passed away at the age of 57 with his beloved mother by his side. Joe was a New Yorker at heart but lived the past 35 years in CA, where he worked for many years as a chef at prestigious hotels. He was a handsome, loving, caring, funny and thoughtful man with beautiful blue eyes, who inspired those around him. His first love was his family survived by his beloved mother Genevieve Alestra-Green, of Escondido, CA, who he cherished every day. Also survived by his beloved brother, Michael Green, of CA, who he cared for deeply and his beloved sister, Sandra Alestra of NY who was the apple of his eye. Also survived by Shelley Eckstein, who was like another sister. Joe will be laid to rest by his father's side Joseph Alestra Sr and his grandparents in his hometown of NJ. He will be mourned by countless aunts, uncles, cousins as well as friends and family from coast to coast. Joe embraced life, had a strong religious faith and enjoyed being with family, travel, theater, music, martial arts and anything Italian. Joe was a warm and loving person who was loved by all.

“ I am so very sadden to hear about Joes death, he was such a sweet man, and I loved him dearly, I always enjoyed his time at the pub and have great memories of him, his food , his smile and his sweet presence. We lost touch but he is in my heart.I always thought when I won the lottery he would be one of the people I would share it with, I hope he didn't suffer.Much love to you Genie and your family. Wish I could have gone to the funeral, but just saw it the paper today..Much love to all of you .let me know an address and after the first of the year I'll go through the Camelot tapes and see if there is some videos of Joe and send them... Chris sends his love and the kids, so sad and sorry. Margo
