

Steven Robert Livesay

July 31, 1958 - March 26, 2014

Steven Robert Livesay of Escondido, California, beloved husband, father, son, brother, and great friend to many, passed from our presence on March 26, 2014, at the young age of fifty-five. Steve graduated from Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins, Colorado and went on to obtain his B.S. in Electronics Engineering from DeVry University in Phoenix, Arizona. He worked in the high technology industry in the San Diego area throughout his career.

Steve married the love of his life, Laurie Louise Graves of Denver, Colorado in 1980, and they and their two daughters lived in the San Diego area for the remainder of their married life. Steve was known for his love of family, his intense loyalty and generosity to his many friends and for his quick wit. He especially liked water skiing, travel, photography, reading, movies, entertaining, and barbecuing for his family and many friends. He enjoyed the outdoors – from the waters of California to the mountains of Colorado, where he was raised.

Steve is survived by his wife Laurie Livesay of Escondido, California, his two daughters, Kaitlin Bailey Livesay of Dillon, Colorado and Kelcie Elizabeth Livesay of Long Beach, California, his parents, Ken and Jackie Livesay of Aurora, Colorado and his sisters, Shelley Bernhard of Lafayette, Colorado and Shawnee Anderson of Denver, Colorado, and his aunt, Bev Hathaway of Lafayette, Colorado.

Steve will be missed with love and admiration but his memory will live with us forever. There will be a celebration of Steve's life on May 25, 2014, 11:00 A.M. at Mission Bay Ski Beach in San Diego, California.

Contributions can be made to the Steven Livesay Scholarship Fund, 1458 Sierra Linda Drive, Escondido, California 92025.

Events

---

MAY Celebration of Life 11:00AM

25

Mission Bay - Ski Beach

San Diego, CA, US

Comments

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - February 26, 2015 at 02:05 PM

---

“ Eleven months today. Listening to some of your favorite music, and the pain is great. I love you and miss you beyond belief. Doesn't seem possible.

Shelley Bernhard - February 26, 2015 at 02:03 PM

---

“ Jackie Livesay lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Jackie Livesay - February 02, 2015 at 12:50 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - January 25, 2015 at 10:37 AM

“ Dear Steve,
Tomorrow is ten months, and it doesn't seem possible. I thought that the pain of your loss would ease by this time. In fact, after the first of the year, the pain is worse. The reality is setting in, although it still doesn't seem possible. I have lost so much in losing you; my safety net, my brother and friend, a sibling to talk to, future plans, and most importantly, the intense pain of knowing what you are missing out on. You so deserve to be here and be a part of all that is happening. It is very difficult without you. I miss you every single day. There were mistakes made, because I was in a state of shock. I am so sorry. Please help me know how to do right by you and honor you in the best possible way. I love you.

Shelley Bernhard - January 25, 2015 at 10:35 AM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - November 26, 2014 at 11:09 AM

---

“ Dear Steve,
Eight months today, and tomorrow is Thanksgiving. I think of all that I have to be thankful for, but then I think of you, and you are such a huge piece of what is missing. I am not myself, and not having you here during this holiday season is very painful. As the time passes, I miss you more and more. You are in my heart and always will be. I wish I had a better understanding of what happened. The questions that I have - and there are many - seem to weigh more heavily as time goes on. I love you.
Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - November 26, 2014 at 11:09 AM

---

“ Dear Steve,
With love to you on this day, October 26, 2014. You will never know how much I miss you.

Shelley Bernhard - October 26, 2014 at 12:41 PM

---

“ Steve, how difficult this day has been. I have thought of so many things today and I know I have told you how we all miss you terribly but it doesn't seem to be getting better. I am told this would happen. I feel like you are here with us and all of a sudden I realize that you are gone forever and I think that it is so difficult to accept and my heart breaks. We all miss you so much and please know that you will be a part of us forever.

Love, Mom

Jackie Livesay - October 18, 2014 at 06:51 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - September 26, 2014 at 06:01 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - September 21, 2014 at 09:38 PM

---

“ Steve, tomorrow is the first day of Fall. Another season begins without you and something about that makes your loss even more painful. The changing leaves don't appear as colorful as they have in the past. Nothing is quite as vibrant since you are gone. The holidays will approach, and I will ache at the thought of you not being here. I ache just thinking about it. The pain is still deep and just when I think I can't cry any more, the tears come. Every night I wake up and look out the window at the stars, and I think of you. Please help guide me to do the right thing. You are always in my heart and on my mind. I am so sorry that you are not here to live out the life you so deserve. You are always in my heart and in my thoughts, and I will always wonder why. I love you and miss you so very much.
Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - September 21, 2014 at 09:37 PM

---

“ Steve, I have been thinking of you everyday but today has been difficult. It is unbearable to think that you are gone from our lives forever and that you are not a phone call away. I miss you so much. Looking back over the past five months it seems like a dream - oh how I wish it were. You are with all of us everyday and you are loved so much.

Love, Mom

Jackie Livesay - August 28, 2014 at 03:45 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - August 26, 2014 at 12:01 PM

---

“ It was five months ago today, Steve. The pain is still deep. I love you and miss you. I wish I could have done more.

Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - August 26, 2014 at 12:00 PM

---

“ Steve was the best when it came to managing people in the workplace. It was a pleasure working for him the past few years. He practiced "servant leadership" where he put the needs and success of his team 1st. Four months has passed, and his presence is still felt and missed here at work each and every day. I was unable to attend the memorial service as I was in Oregon at my daughters wedding May 24th.

My prayers for the healing of his family continue.

Gary Nelson
14 Aug. 2014

Gary Nelson - August 14, 2014 at 02:11 PM

---

“ Steve--I miss you more than words can say. I know I will see you again and that thought keeps me going. I love you.

Shawnee

Shawnee - August 10, 2014 at 09:36 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - July 31, 2014 at 09:28 AM

---

“ Dear Steve,

I am lighting a candle in honor of your birthday. This will always be your day. I love you and miss you.

Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - July 31, 2014 at 09:28 AM

---

“ Dear Steve,

So much has happened in the past 3 and 1/2 months. Time has gone quickly, yet moved in slow motion. Spring has come and gone, and we are in the heat of summer, your birthday upon us. I continue to feel so terribly sad and there are times the grief is overwhelming and your loss unbelievable. We never thought this would happen did we Steve? I think of the many things we talked about doing and the many things you had to live for. Before leaving San Diego, I drove by your house and just sat and looked. I thought of all that you had put into that beautiful home overlooking the vineyard - the peacefulness, the view, the laughter of a patio full of people while you were at the grill and Laurie whipped up something inside, the many dinners, the talks, the debates, and how welcoming you were to everyone. I looked down on the vineyard and thought of how much you liked spending time there - the music, the food trucks that would arrive on Friday evenings, the beauty, the laughter, the calmness, and of course, the wine.

Nicholas and I also went to your office. It was helpful, yet emotional. I had to see the office you went to for the past two years. The employees I met spoke so highly of you and miss you very much. Your office was empty, a couple of memos with your name hanging on a bulletin board, and I imagined you sitting at your desk.

It is so strange to think about, but you would have really enjoyed your service and having all of the family at the house. Finally, Steve, everyone was there. I only hope that you somehow know that. You were loved more than I think you ever thought you were. I am a different person now, and I can feel that I will continue to change because of your passing. It is deep inside, and I can't really explain it. For all the times that I didn't hug you enough, or I wasn't there for you, please know that I tried. For this time in our lives when we were going to spend more time together, it will never be the same. I have learned a great deal about you in the past 3 months and about myself. Know how proud I am of you and how much I love you. You are with me everyday. Please hold on to that piece of me that you took with you.

Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - July 17, 2014 at 09:02 PM

---

“ Shawnee lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

shawnee - July 06, 2014 at 10:31 PM

---

“ Your Loving Father lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Your Loving Father - July 04, 2014 at 06:29 PM

---

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Steve and I met at DeVry and was a good friend - many Foosball memories in the DeVry break room and at My Sweet Lass in Denver. He will be missed.

Mark Vecchiarelli - July 02, 2014 at 06:55 PM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - June 09, 2014 at 11:18 PM

---

“ Dear Steve,

Your Dad and I are leaving tomorrow morning to drive to San Diego to attend your Celebration of Life. It all seems so unreal to us even now and it is terribly difficult knowing that you will not be there. We miss you and think of you everyday wondering how we will ever recover from losing you - it is unbearable. We love you and you will be in our hearts forever.

Love, Mom

Jackie Livesay - May 20, 2014 at 02:35 PM

---

“ It was a very difficult day thinking about you. I feel very broken and sad without you. I miss you.

Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - May 19, 2014 at 09:21 PM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - May 13, 2014 at 08:05 AM

---

“ Steve and I met when we worked together at Copper Mountain Networks for almost 7 years. It was a crazy time. The Internet bubble was in the pre-burst stage, getting ready to fully inflate. Steve was running Production, pumping out telco iron like flapjacks at a Kiwanis breakfast. As crazy, intense and stressful as it was, Steve was always in good spirits. Without him and the team that he built, it would have been a failure.

Though we came from very different backgrounds - me a crazy Irishman from Boston and a NE Patriots fan- Steve and I were kindred souls. It was like I found a long lost brother. We held the same political and spiritual beliefs. What a pleasure it was to meet with him at the Board and Brew for lunch and bitch about all the idiots!

A day does not go by that I don't think of Steve, the great times we had and what a super person he was. His spirit will live on through the people he touched.

I won't be able to attend the celebration of Steve's life (I can already hear him giving me crap!), I have family business back East, but will always keep the memory of Steve alive in my heart and mind.

Joe Harrington - May 12, 2014 at 07:07 PM

---

“ Shawnee lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

shawnee - May 10, 2014 at 12:34 AM

“ I miss you so much, Steve. Friday nights and weekends are unbearable thinking about how much you looked forward to them. Laurie and the girls miss you more than words can say -- mom and dad will never be the same -- and Shelley and I are filled with unimaginable grief. Thank you for being my wonderful and loving brother -- for being so good to me -- for your unconditional patience -- and for always making me laugh. Life will never be the same without you. I hope you know how very much I love you. Shawnee

shawnee - May 10, 2014 at 12:40 AM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - May 08, 2014 at 09:16 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - May 06, 2014 at 11:27 AM

---

“ My Dear Steve,

The pain of your loss is more intense as time moves on. I am told that is part of the process. Here I am in San Diego, and you are not here. I feel lost, confused, and lonely. I am grasping at anything to try and understand and make sense of your passing. Everywhere I turn, there is a reminder of you. I will, as I promised you, do something to honor you and your memory. I only hope that you know how much I love you.

Shelley Bernhard - May 06, 2014 at 11:27 AM

---

“ Ruth Emarine Winder lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Ruth Emarine Winder - May 03, 2014 at 07:37 PM

---

“ Shawnee lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

shawnee - April 29, 2014 at 10:25 PM

---

“ My dearest brother--the sadness is unbearable. My heart gets heavier with each passing day and all I can think of is how much I miss you. Steve, you are missed more than words can say and the reality continues to grip my heart with a pain so fierce that it is beyond words. I listen to your last message on my phone everyday and still cannot believe you are gone. I want you back to share all the laughter and memories. Life will never be the same. I wish I could hear that wonderful laugh and brotherly unspoken understanding you and I always shared. Thank you for being so honorable and honest. I will always regret not spending more time with you. This is truly surreal. I love you to the moon..forever.

Shawnee

shawnee - April 29, 2014 at 10:23 PM

---

“ Dear Steve,
I am feeling very sad today and thinking of how much I miss you. Oh, how I would love to have the phone ring and hear your voice say, "Hi Mom". I miss talking to you and it is still difficult knowing that you are gone. I try and think of the happy times and there were a lot of those and listening to the great stories that you loved to tell. I love you and miss you so.

jackie livesay - April 29, 2014 at 03:47 PM

---

“ Jackie Livesay lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

jackie livesay - April 29, 2014 at 03:36 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - April 27, 2014 at 05:48 PM

---

“ Dear Steve,
To see your name and write-up in the Colorado today under obituaries was surreal and painful. I love you.

Shelley Bernhard - April 27, 2014 at 05:48 PM

---

“ I so miss you Steve--unbearable pain.... I live you.

Shawnee

Shawnee Anderson - April 26, 2014 at 03:29 PM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - April 24, 2014 at 05:15 PM

---

“ Four weeks today since you passed away. The reality of your loss is slowly seeping in, yet there are times I still can't believe it. With this new reality, the grief somehow feels worse. I think of you - what seems like - all of the time. No longer calls from you or updates from Mom on what you are up to. You are with me, and I love you and miss you.

Shelley Bernhard - April 23, 2014 at 05:12 PM

---

“ My Dear Steve,
You are in my heart and mind this Easter weekend. Our love for you and our grief over our loss are deep and will always be a part of us. I have searched through photographs which trigger tears and sadness in me but also many happy memories. I miss your calls late in the afternoon on your way home from work and so much more. I will forever miss you. I love you.
Mom

Jackie Livesay - April 19, 2014 at 02:47 PM

---

“ In honor of and for my love of Steve, on this Good Friday, I lit a candle in his memory.

Shelley Bernhard - April 18, 2014 at 08:25 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - April 18, 2014 at 08:17 PM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - April 17, 2014 at 01:27 PM

---

“ Kelley Allen lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Kelley Allen - April 15, 2014 at 11:28 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - April 15, 2014 at 06:46 PM

---

“ It has been very close to three weeks since your passing. It doesn't seem possible. Your loss is still raw, and the pain is intense. So much has happened in three weeks, yet so very little. Many times I just go through the motions. I am beginning to recognize the many things that stir a memory or emotion. Yesterday it was a couple of songs that reminded me of you. Today, it has been the nice weather and the thought of you getting ready to take your boat on the water and the view of the vineyard from your home - the vines growing and getting ready for another season. I think about Laurie and the girls and how they are coping with your loss. I think of our times last year in San Diego and Coronado and the fun that we had. I love you and miss you. Oh, how I miss you.

Shelley Bernhard - April 15, 2014 at 06:45 PM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - April 13, 2014 at 05:34 PM

“ Peter and I just returned from a visit to the Grand Canyon. I want you to know how much you were in my thoughts as we walked the South Rim and enjoyed the breathtaking view of that very quiet, serene wonder. It was comforting. Miss you, Love you, Steve.

Aunt Bev

Bev - April 13, 2014 at 05:42 PM

---

“ My Dear Steve,
Tonight I am feeling so very sad. I miss you and want to hear your voice, your laugh, and see you smile. I want to just hang out and talk, tell stories and contemplate life. The impact of your passing is enormous for me. Right now I feel a bit lost knowing that you are gone. I was thinking about the television programs we watched and liked and talked about. I love you.

Shelley Bernhard - April 11, 2014 at 08:55 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - April 11, 2014 at 08:48 PM

---

“ Jackie Livesay lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Jackie Livesay - April 09, 2014 at 11:28 AM

---

“ Shawnee lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

shawnee - April 08, 2014 at 11:26 PM

“ I really miss you Steve. Not a minute goes by that you are not with me. What a wonderful legacy you have left. This emptiness will never be filled again..until we meet again. I love you. Shawnee

shawnee - April 08, 2014 at 11:28 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - April 08, 2014 at 06:24 PM

---

“ Dear Laurie, Bailey and Kelcie,
Two weeks ago today we were getting ready to catch a flight to San Diego. Little did we know what the three of you and Steve had been through prior to our arrival. Tomorrow marks two weeks since Steve's passing, and I am thinking of you. With my own grief and pain for the loss of my brother, your husband, best friend, and father, I am sending you love.
Shelley

Shelley Bernhard - April 08, 2014 at 06:23 PM

---

“ Amy Farrington & Lynda Hart purchased the 'Faith, Hope, and Peace' Comfort Candle for the family of Steven Robert Livesay.

Amy Farrington & Lynda Hart - April 08, 2014 at 12:03 PM

---

“ Amy & Lynda At CarrierComm lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Amy & Lynda at CarrierComm - April 08, 2014 at 11:52 AM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - April 07, 2014 at 02:45 PM

---

“ Bev Hathaway lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Bev Hathaway - April 06, 2014 at 06:14 PM

---

“ I have many wonderful memories of our numerous family gatherings during all the years of your youth. It was so nice that our family lived close. You were a sweet boy with a great smile, infectious laugh, and a fun sense of humor. I think back to the time you, at 13 years old, helped Uncle Wells barbeque hamburgers and hot dogs for my 40th Surprise Party, a skill you came to perfect in later life! Also, Uncle Wells enjoyed introducing you to his love of fishing on trips to the Poudre River.

I am sorry I did not see as much of you when you moved out-of-state, but you always made it a point to be with us for holidays and special family occasions. You made us all very proud of the man you became and your many accomplishments.

I appreciate the kindness you showed to "Uncle" Peter and his family as well when you entertained all of us for a barbeque and a visit to the Orfila Winery for a fun evening.

My heart aches for your family and friends who love and miss you so much.

Hopefully,
the many happy memories we all have will soon outweigh the sadness we all feel at losing you at such a young age. You will always be with us as we walk through life missing you.

As I told you during our last phone call prior to your surgery, I love you, Steve.

Aunt Bev

Bev Hathaway - April 06, 2014 at 06:07 PM

“ Steve,

You were the lesson in humility with humor on the side. I remember asking him to play golf with me and he told me emphatically that he does not play golf anymore. So get this, I convinced him to play, he tees it up, hits the driver like he's a pro on the PGA and then informs me that we're only playing nine because this isn't my thing anymore--to my recollection hadn't played since, Darrell your lucky I like you! Is that Steve or what?

The first time I and the family spent Christmas in San Diego with the Livesay's was when I experienced Steve and his family's essence. Steve in his nest, personified his ability to find the best in all of us no matter what great advice we had for each other. During that short time we all spent together, Steve and his family showed me that family is everything, leading by example! I created a painting during that time because of how he and his family made sure I was family. I'm sorry I didn't let him know that the love he passed out to me that week is still in my top 10 joy list. Creating that painting that I heard him talk a lot about is in my top 5! Love you Steve and I will miss you. Don't worry family, Steve prepared me for this when I first met him, live everyday, family is the name of the game, and when you think of me, don't forget to look for the best in every human being you meet!

Darrell

Darrell A - April 05, 2014 at 03:57 PM

---

“ Steve felt as much like a father to me as a non-relative could for so many of my childhood years. I will never forget zipping around on the back of his motorcycle. Although I was scared, he also somehow made me feel so safe. I thank him for all the memories of Superbowl parties, the water skiing adventures, for driving me all over the state for soccer tournaments, and for being such a supporter of my athletic endeavors. He was a wonderful man, father, husband and friend.

-Alison Kreisler

Alison Kreisler - April 05, 2014 at 12:25 PM

---

“ Ken and Jacky,

There is just no way to adequately express our feelings for your loss of your beloved son. We never met Steve, but it sounds like he was a very special man and much loved by everyone who knew him. We are so, so sorry, and our hearts go out to you for this terrible tragedy.

Chuck and Anna

Chuck & Anna Aune - April 05, 2014 at 09:23 AM

---

“ On my wedding day you gave yourself the nickname "GUS" to clarify any confusion with my other uncle Steve. You are a part of so many of my memories, and you added an element of humor to each one. You were an uncle to look up to, reach out to, take advice from, and laugh with. My favorite memories are riding on your motorcycle in Escondido, learning how to drive a manual in downtown San Diego ("you have to learn sometime" you said), sitting on the grass at the winery and watching you play with my daughter, your terrifying ring finger "Limpy" and the welts it produced, and Christmas of 2002 at your house. Most importantly, I will always remember the advice you gave me, over and over: focus on the things that really matter, like your family". I still can't believe that you are gone and I will miss you everyday. Especially those days I need some direction or a good laugh. You touched everyone you met, and we are all better for knowing you and having you in our lives. I look forward to seeing you again someday, and hearing your laugh. I love you. Your niece Kelley

kelley allen - April 04, 2014 at 10:42 PM

---

“ My Dearest Steve -- there is an emptiness within me that will never be replaced. Thank you for being my generous and loving brother, for protecting me when we were growing up, for all the laughter and wit you continued to offer to so many people. I know you touched everyone in your life that you met. I'm lost right now with the reality we will not have time to be together as we grow older in our years. You were a wonderful husband, father and brother and know that you are with me all the time. Not a minute goes by that I don't think about you and how you made me a better person. I only wish I had spent more time with you and shared more of your day-to-day life. I know you will be watching over all of us and please know I will continue to talk to you everyday, as I have been doing, and look forward to seeing you again someday. I love you dearly and this is not good-bye. It is 'so long' until we see each other again. May God be wish you, Steve. Forever your sister, Shawnee

shawnee - April 04, 2014 at 04:54 PM

---

“ Shawnee Anderson, Sister lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shawnee Anderson, sister - April 04, 2014 at 04:52 PM

---

“ Ken Livesay lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Ken Livesay - April 04, 2014 at 02:53 PM

---

“ Shelley Bernhard lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shelley Bernhard - April 04, 2014 at 12:14 PM

---

“ Steve -

I want to remember the good things, the fun things. Like barbecuing pizza (and many other things) on your lower deck, driving your BMW on an Escondido country road, sitting in a cold CU stadium watching Nicholas graduate, drinking slushy margaritas with Bill and Janet and your other friends by your pool after the girls' graduations, eating dinner outside at Il Forniao in Coronado - watching dusk fall on the downtown San Diego skyline and eating candy apples afterward. Sitting on the grass together at the Vinyard, looking across at your house. Hearing you laugh. Things like that. Every time I start up my car I will think of you - you know why. Farewell, my friend. See you again one bright day. Your brother-in-law,
John

Shelley Bernhard - April 04, 2014 at 11:52 AM

---

“ Deb Van Luit lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Deb Van Luit - April 03, 2014 at 10:33 PM

---

“ My Loving Son - My heart is broken into a million pieces and my life has changed forever. Death of a child, no matter what age, is one of life's most difficult experiences. It is not supposed to happen in that order. We always looked so forward to your visits in Colorado with us and of course experiencing the difficult time when you left. We enjoyed your love of life and family, your playfulness and the great stories you loved to tell. It will never be the same. You were a wonderful son and you will forever be in my heart. May your life be honored by all that you loved and cherished for all that you gave.
Your loving Mother.

Jacquelyn Livesay - April 03, 2014 at 03:34 PM

---

“ My Dear Brother - I love you so much and will miss you terribly. I promise to keep your memory alive, and I will not go a day without you in my heart. I will remember you with this smile and the joy that you found in this life. I will remember your generous and forgiving heart, your stories, your opinions and the love you had for your family and friends. I will remember how simply adorable you were as a little boy, having to put up with older sisters. I will remember your ability to talk with and make friends with everyone. I will forever be sad that you were taken too soon, and that we were entering a time in our lives when we would have spent more time together. Know that you took a piece of me with you, and I am forever changed. You touched so many lives. As you will be watching over your loved ones, I will also be watching over you. I take comfort in knowing that I can continue to talk to you and that you will be there to listen. I will remember the last time I looked into your eyes, hugged you, and waved to you a kiss. God Bless You, Steve. My brother and my friend. Forever, Shelley.

Shelley Bernhard - April 03, 2014 at 12:37 PM

---

“ Shawnee Anderson, Sister lit a candle in memory of Steven Robert Livesay

Shawnee Anderson, Sister - April 03, 2014 at 12:35 PM

“ My Dearest Steve -- there is an emptiness within me that will never be replaced. Thank you for being my generous and loving brother, for protecting me when we were growing up, for all the laughter and wit you continued to offer to so many people. I know you touched everyone in your life that you met. I'm lost right now with the reality we will not have time to be together as we grow older in our years. You were a wonderful husband, father and brother and know that you are with me all the time. Not a minute goes by that I don't think about you and how you made me a better person. I only wish I had spent more time with you and shared more of your day-to-day life. I know you will be watching over all of us and please know I will continue to talk to you everyday, as I have been doing, and look forward to seeing you again someday. I love you dearly and this is not good-bye. It is 'so long' until we see each other again. May God be wish you, Steve. Forever your sister, Shawnee

Shawnee Anderson, Sister - April 03, 2014 at 01:06 PM