“ My aunt Wanda is such a blessing for me. She's a beautiful lady inside and out. She loved being with her whole family and loved the Lord. I've always loved her and enjoyed her company. She will be missed and I know she's with our Lord and smiling down at us.

“ Wanda is my mother-in-law. I remember her infectious laugh! She was so good with the grand children they just love her. When they were living in Arcadia we would go to the Arboretum and get chased by the peacocks and the squirrels would throw nuts at us.

I remember her laughing hysterically because one of the squirrels hit her husband's head with a nut and she laughed and laughed.

Mom, I will see you again! Gwen Willis
